

K love radio is a positive broadcast for our community. There are so many that listen to klove due to not having to worry about content or what their children my hear. I have benefited greatly from having klove as part of my family's life. We can enjoy music and not worry about my children hearing things that are not for their age group. Please keep Klove on air so I can keep security and peace in my house along with many other homes.